

Dean's Learn Law. Live Justice. Award Recipient: Jeffrey Carr '19

After graduating from Bowling Green State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration, Jeffrey Carr spent three years working for a Fortune 500 company as a procurement specialist. During that time, he realized he wanted to do more with his life than a desk job and sought to pursue a career where he could affect people's lives every day.

Jeff chose to pursue that ideal by enrolling at Cleveland-Marshall College of Law and immediately immersing himself in many of the programs our law school offers to the community. He became so ingrained in the C|M|LAW community and committed to using his legal education as a force for good that Dean Fisher recently selected him as the recipient of this year's Dean's Learn Law. Live Justice Award.

Each year, a graduating student receives the Dean's Learn Law. Live Justice Award, by not only achieving academic success, but also by demonstrating what it means to live justice — being committed to making clients' lives better and the community stronger. Jeff was nominated for the award by members of the C|M|LAW faculty and staff, and as this year's recipient, he will address his fellow graduates at C|M|LAW's 2019 Commencement Ceremony.

"I am honored to be selected for this award because of what it represents and knowing that many of the past recipients have gone on to do some truly remarkable things with their law degree," Carr said.
